

EUCA CAMBRIDGE SUMMER SCHOOL

European Political Identity at the Crossroads: Whither European Integration?

August 30th - September 14th 2016

Study the European Project at the University of Cambridge
7th annual edition of EUCA's Summer School at Newham College, Cambridge

Academic seminars

- Prof. Thomas D'Andrea, University of Cambridge. The European Social Democratic Project: Philosophical and Theological Foundations.
- Prof. Andreas Kinneging, University of Leiden. United We Stand, Divided We Fall: A Case for the United States of Europe.
- Prof. Harald Wydra, University of Cambridge. Two or More Europes? Memory, Identity and History.
- Ms. Naema Tahir, British-Dutch-Pakistani Human rights lawyer, author, broadcaster and expert in Islamic affairs. Muslim Integration in Europe: Muslim Women and Interreligious Relationships.
- Mr. Riccardo Ribera d'Alcalà, Director-General for Internal Policies of the Union European Parliament. Dynamics of the European Integration Process - Insights from the European Parliament.
- Dr. Mustafa Cenap Aydin, Director of Tevere Institute, Rome. Muslim Integration in Europe: Can a Muslim be a European Citizen?
- Ms. Victoria Martín de la Torre, Press Officer of S&D Group, European Parliament and author of the book Europe, a Leap into the Unknown; Discovering the Founding Fathers of the European Union.
- Mr. Andrei Zolotov, Jr., Executive Editor (Europe) of Russia Direct. How Europeans can understand Russia better.

More speakers to be announced.

EUCA

European University College Association

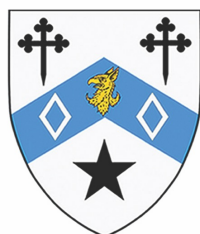

- Extracurricular activities of the Summer School will include: a chamber music concert with the Klenke String Quartet (Berlin) and pianist Jascha Nemtsov, a British Parliamentary Debate, EU negotiation simulation, soft skills training sessions, a trip to London, punting on the river Cam, a visit to Grantchester, a concluding Formal Dinner and much more. There will be also the chance to visit the historical colleges and museums in Cambridge.
- This program provides an excellent springboard for students interested in applying for internships at the European Parliament and other EU institutions.

• Applicants must send their CV, a short video and a review (between 800/1000 words) based on one of the articles proposed (please check www.euca.eu).

DEADLINE TO APPLY: May 22, 2016

EUCA is a European-wide network of residential Colleges and university Halls of Residence that offer beyond mere accommodation educational programs, such as academic courses, tutoring, soft skills training, and volunteering opportunities.

Student participation fee is 400 euros, which includes accommodation, all meals and tuition for the two weeks. Students must cover their travel expenses to and from Cambridge.

For more information please visit: www.euca.eu

