THE WARSAW EAST EUROPEAN REVIEW

The Warsaw East European Review is a yearly academic journal created as an output of the WEEC publishing the best papers presented by the conference participants.

Each year the journal gathers articles under a common title closely related with the main theme of the conference. The volume also includes an interesting discussion of experts in a more relaxed form, in volume VI/2016 you will find a discussion concerning the past and present of Russia's relation with War.

The WEER is available to acquire through the Centre's distribution at:

wydawnictwa.studium@uw.edu.pl

Regular price is 15 € (worldwide shipping included) or 10 € (for shipping in Poland)
